"The older our author gets, the more he envies those who have a God. But how do you find him? Since the church won't come to him, Alexander Krex says to himself, he'll just go to it."

Deaf Dalmatians

"Whether it's born, genetic or due to old age, living with a deaf dog can be challenging. But it can also be surprisingly rewarding."

K.O.

"The slightest doubt is usually worth more than a false certainty. After a one-night stand, a young man is accused of raping a woman in. He denies the crime. But instead of looking for the truth, the court spins up a story of its own, wich in the end doesn't do justice to either of them."
